

Make a Difference: Become a Tutor with LDAS!

Who We Are

At the Learning Disabilities Association of Saskatchewan (LDAS), we champion individuals who are neurodivergent, particularly those with ADHD, math, and reading challenges. We believe in a future where everyone can reach their full potential and thrive in our community.

Through collaboration, empowerment, and hope, we support individuals in achieving financial stability, sustainability, and a deeper understanding of learning differences. Our team works together to create customized learning strategies that unlock each student's unique potential, so they can succeed with confidence.

The Opportunity

We are seeking a compassionate and dedicated Academic Tutor for our Prince Albert office to provide individualized support to students with learning disabilities and ADHD. If you are passionate about helping students build confidence, develop skills, and unlock their full potential, this is your chance to make a lasting impact.

What You'll Do

- ✓ Work one-on-one with students, tailoring strategies to their individual needs.
- ✓ Foster a positive and supportive learning environment that builds confidence.
- ✓ Use innovative and evidence-based techniques to teach reading, writing, math.
- ✓ Communicate with families and the LDAS team to track student progress.
- ✓ Inspire hope, optimism, and success in every session.

You Will Need

- ✓ A Bachelor's Degree in Education.
- ✓ A degree in a related discipline or significant experience in the teaching field.
- ✓ An Educational Assistant Certificate.
- ✓ Third-year student in the Faculty of Education.

Who You Are

Passionate about supporting students with learning disabilities and ADHD.

Knowledgeable in literacy and numeracy strategies or willing to learn best practices.

Patient, encouraging, and adaptable to meet diverse learning needs.

A strong communicator who can connect with students, families, and the LDAS team.

Committed to making a difference—you thrive on seeing students succeed.

Why Join LDAS?

Purpose-driven work—your impact is real and meaningful

Flexible scheduling to accommodate your availability

Supportive team environment where you can learn, grow, and collaborate

Inspire change—help students believe in their abilities and aim high

If you're ready to empower students, ignite potential, and bring hope, we want to hear from you!

To apply, please send your resume to careers@ldas.org.